Pretty Wedding in Historic St. John's.

Takoma - Personal

At St. John's Church, yesterday at noon,

Miss Juliet Bradford Stewart, daughter of Rev. Kensey Johns Stewart, and Rev. John H. Windeler were married by Dr. Mackay-Smith. The bride's father pronounced the benediction. The bride wore a pretty dress of white mulle and lace, in which she graduated a few days ago. A large white hat was worn and a bouquet of white roses carried. After the ceremony a few friends were entertained at her residence, 935 P street, at a wedding breakfast. The table was decorated with pure white blossoms and a large cake graced the center. Among those present were Rev. Mr. Hunter, Mrs. Barber, Mr. Walter Barber, Mrs. Kate B. Page, Mrs. Dodson and Miss Bessie Dod-son. Rev. and Mrs. Windeler left on a late train for their future home, Blenheim, N. Y., where Mr. Windeler has been recently

PIERCE'S BONDSMAN UNEASY. The Ex-Policeman to Be Apprehended

by Detective McDevItt.

Although the bond of ex-Policeman Jas. E. Pierce, charged with burglarizing houses in Georgetown while he was doing police duty, has not been forfeited, his bondsman, Chas. W. Slater, believes he does not intend to return, and has employed Private Detective McDevitt to apprehend him. Pierce was not in court Wednesday, when Pierce was not in court Wednesday, when the case was called, and counsel stated that he expects him here Monday.

Because of his failure to appear, his bondsman became uneasy, and decided to force his appearance, if possible. The expoliceman came here from near White River Junction, Vt., and it is thought he has gone back there, and that he may be in Canada. Detective McDevitt has prepared a circular asking for the apprehension of the supposed fugitive.

ASSAULT ON A BRAKEMAN.

Howard Hopkins Arrested, Charged With a Grave Offense. Detective Hutchinson of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and Detective Horne arrested a young man named Howard Hopkins yesterday afternoon and took him to Hyattsville to be given a hearing on a charge of assault. His half brother, Bosworth Hopkins, is also charged with participation in the affair, and they are to be given a hearing this afternoon. These young men are charged with hav-ing assaulted Arthur A. Fuller, a brake-ing assaulted Arthur A. Fuller, a brake-man on the railroad, Saturday night, while they were on train No. 14 at Beltsville. It is alleged that the night of May 12 the young men left here to go to their home at Beltsville, and because of their nome at Beltsville, and because of their alleged disorderly conduct were required to leave the train at College station, and were not permitted to go to the end of their journey.

Conductor Rudder thought no more of Conductor Rudder thought no more of the matter after making a report of it to the superintendent, until Saturday night, when the men were again passengers on the train. They caused no trouble while the train was in motion, but when the stop was made at Beltsville the brakeman. Arther Fuller was assembled from behind Arthur Fuller, was assaulted from behind, and it is charged that the defendants com-mitted the assault. When the affair was mitted the assault. When the affair was over ice water applications were made to Fuller's eyes, but that did not prevent discoloration. Conductor Rudder made a report of the happening to Chief Lloyd of the railroad detective force, and the latter detailed Detective Hutchinson to make the investigation with the result retred. investigation, with the result stated. Bos-worth Hopkins, the half brother, promised to be on hand at the hearing, and he was not arrested.

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY.

Henry Hill Held to Answer to the Accusation.

Henry O., alias Ollie H., Hill, a young white man who was indicted here the 19th of last month for bigamy, was brought to the city this morning from Rochester, N Y., where he was arrested on a bench varrant, and committed to jail in default of $500 ball to await trial.

Hill is charged with having married Leona Locke here the first of last April, at a time when his first wife, Minnie Kirsch, whom he married at Baltimore, Md., January 25, 1887, still lived, undivorced from him. Hill is a sufferer from epilepsy, and just before being brought into court this morning had a severe fit. As a result he was so weak that he had to be supported in and out of the court room.

He had several similar fits on the train, it is said, while en route to this city.

A Pleasing Program.

The regular meeting of Minnehaha Lodge Tuesday evening was well attended and the proceedings interesting throughout. One candidate was initiated. Chief Templar Russell presiding. The Marshal's March, conducted by Misses Nellie Smith and Lolo Elwood, was particularly fine. Instructive addresses were given by Messes. Bryson and Potter of Perseverance Lodge, and entertaining reports from Delegates Canfield and Stewart, from the last session of the Anti-Saloon League. Past Chief Dinsmore made some instructive remarks upon current events. Chaplain Laing gave a select reading; a piano and violin duet was executed with line effect by Miss Elwood and Prof. Stewart, and some delightful vocal selections rendered by Mrs. Carrie and Miss Nellie Smith. Treasurer John G. Smith, in a brief address, spoke of a generous offer made of a tent for use in holding outdoor meetings in Southeast Washington. Elwood, was particularly fine.
